COOL GREETING
GIVEN ROOSEVELT
AT RENO VISIT

CHIEF OF BULL MOOSE RECEIVES
LITTLE APPLAUSE AS HE DE-LIVERS SPEECH

Theodore Roosevelt did not create the stir in Reno as was expected when the ex-president arrived in that city Saturday morning and delivered an address. Applause was lacking while the colonel continued his discourse, and on several occasions a desultory sort of cheering punctuated the remarks. The Gazette has the following to say of the invasion of Reno by the chief of the bull moose brigade:

With no particular enthusiasm shown, former president Theodore Roosevelt rushed into Reno this morning, made a rather disappointing address in Powning park, opposite the court house, and rushed out of town again. On the way to the park he took occasion to wave his hat at Colonel Reeves, the deposed leader of the bull mooseers in this state.
This was the only recognition Reeves received.

It was noticeable the lack of cheering or applause which greeted the remarks of the ex-president. During the first five minutes of his speech he used the pronoun "I" with great frequency. He set for the deeds he had accomplished while president and a significant silence fell upon the throne which had gathered to hear him.

Without a doubt it was one of the poorest political addresses ever heard in this city. It was a sore disappointment to the bull mooseers who were keyed up for some genuine fireworks. Roosevelt did not leave much of an impression. When he concluded his remarks, there was some desultory applause but none of that heartiness which usually marks events of great political importance was manifested.

It was noticeable that Governor Oddie, one of the governors who had originally declared for him, failed to take the trouble to come from Carson and be present at the meeting. There was no mention on the part of the colonel as to who was paying for the special trains, the expenses of the primary campaign.
The name of George W. Perkins, head of the steel trust, was not mentioned in any way. It was one of the things the colonel forgot.

CONVEY TITLE TO NYE
COUNTY MINING CLAIM

A deed was placed on file at the office of the county auditor and recorder this morning, conveying title to the Pick and Gad mining claim, in the Goldfield district, to the Gold-Diamondfield Gold company, from R.
S. Wilbur, the consideration being $10.

MANY SETTLERS
ARE ATTRACTED TO
RAILROAD VALLEY

APPLICATIONS ARE RECEIVED
BY CAREY ACT PROMOTERS
FOR THEIR LAND

D. H. Walker, superintendent of the Railroad Valley company, left yesterday for the scene of company operations in the valley, says the Ely Expositor. The work on the first hole having been stopped at a point below 1200 feet. The drilling rig has been moved to a place on the lands that are to be segregated for the company under the Carey act and a hole is being drilled to develop water for irrigation. At 150 feet there was so much of a flow from the well that it could not be lowered by pumping.

The Railroad Valley company has applied to the state for the segregation of between 55,000 and 60,000 acres which it expects can be made productive under irrigation with water from artesian wells that will be drilled on different parts of the tract. When the company is able to demonstrate the feasibility of the project the land will be set aside by the state to be sold to applicants who will be charged from 50 cents to $1 an acre for the land and who will purchase water rights from the company which will cost somewhere between $40 and $50 an acre according to the best estimates that can be made at present. The company will make the price of water rights as low as possible to attract a good class of permanent settlers. Some applications have already been received but the company will not have any of the land ready for settlement until after the first of next year. As soon, however, as any part of the land is opened for settlement it is expected there will be many applications and that there will be many new farms started in the valley which will eventually be one of the most important agricultural districts in the state.

PLATFORMS OF
BOTH PARTIES TO
BE FORMULATED

CANDIDATES WILL MEET AT COURT HOUSE AT 2 O'CLOCK
TOMORROW AFTERNOON

Both republican and democratic candidates will meet at the court house tomorrow afternoon for the purpose of selecting county central committees, in accordance with the wording of the new primary law. It is specified that the candidates meet at 2 o'clock.

The meeting will also be held, according to the provisions, for the framing of county platforms. In the naming of members of the county central committees it is provided that not more than three, or less than one member be selected from each voting precinct in the county.
Each precinct must have the same number of members on the committee.

It is believed that a short session will be held when the different candidates meet at 2 o'clock and that an adjournment will be taken until evening in order to allow the different committees to be appointed, time in which to prepare their reports.

---how much Is A "Regular Customer" Worth to Your Store?

Suppose you could BUY 100 additional REGULAR CUSTOMERS during the next week or two—customers who, for years and years to come, would make a MAJORITY of their purchases of goods in your

What would each of these 100 customers be WORTH to you?

It is, we think, quite likely that if such an investment were possible, you'd eagerly pay TWICE AS MUCH as it would cost you to secure these 100 REGULAR CUS-campaign big enough and aggressive enough to really make people
